

Vision of the Department

“A recognized program producing skilled computer engineering professionals with creative technical knowledge keeping pace with new technologies to meet the challenges of 21st century”

Mission of the Department

- M1. To provide schooling via rigorous academics, practical and outcomes oriented teaching.
- M2. Need based training to faculty and students.
- M3. Develop professionals with analytical ability for career in industry, academics and entrepreneurs.
- M4. To create digitally entitled teaching and learning environments.