

Vision of Department

To emerge as one of the leading programs, committed to achieve excellence consistent with industrial and social demands.

Mission of Department

- To strike a balance between theory and practical applications for acquiring professional competences.
- To offer state of the art teaching learning ambiance to promote multidisciplinary activities to meet current and future industry and social demands.
- Encourage students to innovation and research through collaboration with industry and engineering professional societies.